6. Division and Office Function What is the function of the Division and the Office in which this record series is created? The Georgia Education Leadership Academy (GELA) was created by the Quality Basic Education Act (QBE) to provide educational leadership personnel with continuous opportunity for professional development. Areas addressed by GELA include educational skills development, management skills development, personnel selection models including the NASSP Assessment Center, information dissemination and locally developed programs. QBE states that all persons employed by a Local Unit of Administration (LUA) must have an annual evaluation conducted by a trained evaluator. QBE further states that there will be a uniform state-wide evaluation procedure for certain "certified" personnel, including leadership, teachers, media specialists, school counselors, speech-language pathologists, school social workers and school psychologists. Seven evaluation programs and corresponding evaluator training programs were developed to meet this requirement. The GELA was given the responsibility for coordinating the evaluator training effort and maintaining evaluator training records.

This is in response to our recent discussions concerning an appropriate records retention schedule for the materials of the Education Leadership Academy. I understand that the records are in four general categories: administration, evaluator training, leadership and staff development and program. These records focus on an extensive training program to train evaluators who then go into the school system and evaluate certified personnel. The Leadership Development does management training for supervisors and superintendents.

After consultation with appropriate professional personnel, you have recommended a retention schedule of five years for the Leadership Development files and two years for the remaining records. Given the nature of these records and their likely need for retrieval, I believe your suggested retention schedule is reasonable and appropriate. If you have any questions or wish to discuss this matter, please feel free to contact me at 651-9452.
